

CNTA

Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness

$1000 Scholarship High School Essay Contest for 2011

Choose from the following 3 topics:

- The Future of Small Modular Nuclear Power Reactors
- Nuclear Medicine: Diagnosis versus Treatment
- Application of Nuclear Technology to Water Desalinization

The goal of the CNTA High School Essay Contest is to increase awareness of nuclear technology and its effects on society among high school students in the local area.

Criteria:

- 1000 – 1500 Word Essay
- Current high school junior or senior
- Open to any student that attends school in Aiken, Richmond, or Columbia Counties in SC & GA
- Open to family of a CNTA member regardless of school location
- One submittal per contestant
- No Faxes accepted
- Electronic submittals preferred
- Proper citation of sources is required on all submissions

Award:

- $1000 Student Scholarship for winning essay
- $500 award for winner's school

Essay Deadline February 28, 2011

Email to: cnta@bellsouth.net or

Mail to: CNTA

Attention: Dr. Clint Wolfe

1204 Whiskey Road

Aiken, South Carolina 29803

Contacts: Dr. Clint Wolfe
cnta@bellsouth.net
(803) 649-3456

William Wabbersen
william.wabbersen@srs.gov
(803) 725-8415

Sponsored by:
Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness
1204 Whiskey Road
Aiken, South Carolina 29803